

MORNING APPEAL

Official Paper of Ormsby County

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 27

The Weiland Saloon.

W. Whitney has assumed control of the Weiland saloon, which he proposes to run strictly up to the times. He will dispense the best liquors and cigars and fine old Government whiskey, which slides down your throat like oil, tickling your palate meanwhile. Call and see "Handsome Whit." 111

Benton's Liniment.

Which has been used in Carson for over twenty-five years, has saved many an ache and pain to those who know it. It is really intended for horses but works with the same magical effect on the human. It is a powerful remedy and for rheumatism is the king of the world. Aches knocked out in short order. No horseman should be without a bottle. Benton's Liniment for sale at all drug stores.

Fall and Winter Clothing.

John Henderson representing the firm of Wanamaker & Brown of Philadelphia, Pa., will be at the Arlington House Nov. 23, 24, and 25 with a full line of samples of clothing and furnishing goods. Do not fail to call and examine goods. Prices are much lower than ever before. 20

The people of Carson and vicinity that want furniture repaired should try Mr. Meyers a first class upholsterer who will make your mattresses and lounges over as good as new. This mechanic will stop in Carson if the people will only give him a chance to prove himself worthy. Geo. W. Kitzmeyer has tendered him his workshop who will guarantee that his work will be good and charges satisfactory. Persons who have tried the so called upholsters who are not responsible for their work, will find a big difference in their favor if they trust their upholstering to this man. Call at the store of Geo. W. Kitzmeyer. 1w

Philip Krall, teacher of piano, is ready to receive pupils. For information apply to F. J. Steinmetz or Mrs. McQuarters.

Death of Henry Vansickle.

Yesterday Henry Vansickle who was thrown from his wagon last week, died at Genoa. He was one of the best known pioneers of Nevada, a sterling man and brave as a lion.

Early in the sixties he killed the greatest desperado the State had ever produced, Sam Brown. Brown attacked Vansickle at his home. Vansickle loaded a shot gun, mounted his horse and followed him several miles. He overtook him at Olds ranch and blew the top of his head off. There was quite a rejoicing all over the State and Vansickle was exonerated. His funeral takes place today.

Married.

In Trinity Church, at Santa Barbara, California, on November 21st, 1893, by Rev. W. H. Ramsey, Joseph L. Trainer to Lillian Hawley, formerly of this city.

Miss Hawley is the daughter of Judge Hawley, and the APPEAL acknowledges the receipt of a case of walnuts raised on the bridegroom's farm.

Miss Sophia Jacobs who has been studying music under the instruction of Prof. F. Zecher at San Francisco, is now prepared to give lessons to a limited number of pupils.

For particulars inquire at residence.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's thing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It softens the child, softens the gums, soothes the pain, cures wind colic and all the best remedy for diarrhoea. 25 cents a bottle.

Notice.

I take pleasure in stating to the public that I have opened the Silver State Restaurant and will run the business under my sole supervision. Not having a partner and being untrammelled in the management of the business, I shall endeavor to merit a full share of public patronage. IDA WINTERS.

THE MINSTREL SHOW.

THE COMSTOCK COLORED PEOPLE GIVE A GREAT PERFORMANCE.

The Opera House was packed last evening to witness the Orisole Minstrel show.

The Orisoles are composed of native colored people from Virginia City, who go about the country giving performances for the benefit of Christianity and their health. It is said that several of the best performers are white people, blackened up, but the colored people of the Comstock insist that all the performers are Simon pure "coloured possums," moving in the best colored society of Storey county, with a few "white trash" thrown in to fill up. It is said that F. J. Norris, one of the lights of the show, was raised on a Georgian plantation, and was once owned by Jeff Davis as a slave. He composes all his plantation melodies, and can completely change the expression of his face without leaving the stage.

Mrs. Ed. Yerington, who is one of the leading ladies, has no colored blood in her veins, but is regarded as a beautiful Caucasian.

Mrs. Wildes, whose stage name is Minnie Kinkadee, is the most sparkling little soubrette of any combination on the road. She claims also to be white, but the colored population say that the way she twists her heel around, is just too good for any white person.

Mr. F. J. Norris acted as interlocutor, and was all right. Wilds and Kinkadee have the ends and rattle the bones like fiends of darkness. There are no summer insects on Hall and Moore with the banjo.

Miss Haas has the most delightful soprano voice of any of the singers, her rendition of "Whose Little Girl Are You," was loudly encored. Mrs. Hatch sang "Wait Mr. Postman." Miss Crane gave the audience "Sligo," a clever song, and the ladies were rapturously received. One of the features of the entertainment was a duet by Mrs. Yerington and Miss Haas, "Star of My Heart." Mrs. Wildes and Ed. Hall gave a negro song and dance that was immense. Among the ladies of the troupe that give life and expression to the choruses were Mrs. Crane Mrs. Hatch, Misses Hart, Miss Wheeler, Mrs. Colburn and Mrs. Spencer.

Maguire was very skillful with the banjo, and the male quartette, Messrs. Hill, Moore, Rowe and Trevillian carried off a lions share of the applause. All in all the Comstockers gave us a better performance than most of the professionals that have visited us.

No town in the State can boast of so much talent and such a variety of it. The jokes and gags were mostly brand new, although a few old moss backs were thrown in just to keep the boys on the back seats quiet and give the audience the illusion that a regular minstrel show was in progress.

A performance with all new jokes would not be tolerated in any country.

Goodwin Introduced.

A new brand of cigars is out called "The Comstock Club." It is named after a very pleasant book written by C. C. Goodwin of the Salt Lake Tribune, and in the center of the lid is a very life like picture of Judge Goodwin. You can tell it five rods off and the cigars make their presence felt even further.

It is seldom a man reaches such a prominence that a brand of cigars is named after him. Only two men in the State ever reached such a dizzy pinnacle of greatness, Senator Stewart and C. C. Goodwin and no man can say they did not deserve it. Many a man works like the devil all his life for fame and yet goes down in his grave never to have a brand of cigars named after him.

A man who "gets there" can rest on his laurels for the rest of his life and never do anything else. He is bound to go down to his grave famous and honored and long after, his bones mingle with the mould of mother earth his name will be remembered by smokers all over the country and those who are, stuck after that particular brand of cigars will never forget him.

A warrant was issued Saturday by a Justice of the Peace of Kansas City for the arrest of Ed Findlay, a local political leader, charging him with aiding and procuring fraud in the election.

Another strike is reported at Pine Nut.

The News and the Spoils.

The News is very much disgusted with the result of the election, but its disgust was considerably increased when it discovered that there was a movement on foot to place silver men in office whenever practical.

We have heard some rumors to this effect, but think there must be some mistake. Several of the newly elected State officers are expected by the News to give up their offices to their Republican opponents.

We think the better way would be to have the Silver men hold office just for the honor of the thing, you know, and turn the salaries over to the beaten Republicans. It would certainly establish harmonious relations with the Republicans and be real magnanimous.

The APPEAL will advocate this plan as soon as it can discover any genuine, well set ground swell in its favor.

Turkey Shoot and Thanks. giving Ball.

The gubernatorial proclamation that Thanksgiving will be observed this year does not complete the idea without the announcement that Admirable Wiggins of Empire will have a turkey shooting and masquerade ball on Thanksgiving. The turkeys will be fat and juicy and stand still to be shot at, and the ball will be up to the usual standard of those festive events in Empire. There will be chicken shooting with shot guns and all kinds of true real old Thanksgiving sports with hilarity in the evening that makes life worth living in the seaport town.

Lincoln County Majorities.

A correspondent of the APPEAL sends the following as the majorities of the several candidates for offices in Lincoln county. Nealands, 35; Jones, 21; Sadler, 63; Bonfield, 85; Howell, 254; Westerfield, 111; Pratt, 75; Ring, 51; Deal, 62; Talbot for District Judge, 170.

During the campaign the Enterprise stated that while there were but 25 Republican votes in Nye County two years ago that in the recent election the vote would be increased to several hundred. The returns show 27 votes, so as a matter of fact the Republicans gained two. This was not a large gain, but it beat the gain they made in some other counties.
